DINNER. CORONATION FESTIVITIES BEGIN-KING EDWARD GIVES

KING RETURNS TO LONDON; HE LOOKS WORN AND PALE.

Leans Heavily Upon His Cane as He Steps From the Royal Carriage -Great Crowds Greet Their Majesties-Streets Almost Impassable-Big General Rehearsal at Westminster Abbey.

KING AND QUEEN GIVE BIG DINNER TO ROYALTY OF EUROPE.

QUEEN ALEXANDRA.

official greeting of the British muse .

On Hastings field went down.

Have many crowns been gathered, till to-& Saluted in the hearts of men as she

Of high and singular election, set Benignant on the miligated sea;

the Coldstream Guards discoursed throughout the evening. The dinner was followed by a brilliant reception, which was attended by the members of the suites of all the for-eign potentates now in London.

Joseph Chamberlain, the Colonial Secre-ary, and Mrs. Chamberlain, who was Miss Mary Endicett of Massachusetts, received the colonial premiers and other distin-guished visitors from Great Britain's colo-nles at their London residence this evening.

WENT TO ST. CHARLES TO WED.

Jacob Baumgartner and Miss Mary

McFargus Surprised Friends.

Jacob F. Baumgartner of No. 1522 Lef-fingweil avenue and Miss Mary McFargus of No. 1389 Cranville place were married at the Courthouse in St. Charles by Justice he Courthouse in St. Charles by Justice Bruno yesterday afternoon at 5.

Mr. Baumgartner, who is a letter carrier, resides with his married sister, Mrs. Henry Schwaab, at No. 1522 Leffingwell avenue, When informed that her brother had mar-ried Miss McFargus at St. Charles she was much surprised.

· dress to the King:

SPECIAL BY CABLE TO THE NEW YORK # 6 0 London, June 23.—(Copyright, 1962.)—It is coronation—nothing but coronation—in London to-day.

His Majesty and Queen Alexandra arrived from Windsor Recording to the arrangements and drove in semistate to Buckingham Palace. He was loudly cheered by the great crowds which lined the absence of anything from the laureate, may be looked upon as the stands, the crowds and individuals in the stands, the crowds are discriminately.

MARRIED IN SAN FRANCISCO.

St. Louis Girl's Future Home Will

Notwithstanding the optimistic reports to to the King of England. the effect that the physicians were satisfied with the condition of the King's of all the younger English poets and. San Francisco, Cal health. It was noticed that his Majesty.

when he stepped from the train and walked this poets, save only Swinburne. Kip of St. Louis, was married this evening to to his carriage, leaned rather heavily on his care and moved as though he suffered the younger men, and Kipling, pains in the small of the back.

by his tired expression and pale complexion, the more remarkable phenomenon. which seemed quite gray.

One of the most interesting events of today was a rehearsal by all the official peoin Westminster Abbey. The Earl Marshal ple concerned in the coronation ceremony had sent out what, in theatrical parlance, in these eight hundred summers of rewould be styled a "general call" for all concerned for half past 2. A very great attendance of those taking part in the protendance of those taking part in the proceedings was the result. "The robing hall," as the new temporary

The robing hall," as the new temporary serection at the west end of the Abbey is called, was crowded. All round were drawn up men belonging to the King's Company of This is commonplace enough—with extremely interesting rehearsal took place. | old" is the keynote that runs through o Mr. Alcock, the King's organist, was presiding at the organ, and all the boys of Westminster, in scariet cussocies, were stationed in their proper placea, ready to rehearse their shouts acclaiming the King.

A final warning is embodied in Although the processions were extremely dignitied, it was rather amusing to see the many great people concerned wearing make-believe trains.

believe trains.

While the procession was forming the four Duchesses had a rehearsal of carrying the guiden canepy, which is a lovely piece of workmanship. When the procession was reasy, the organ pealed out the anthem, "I Wass Glad When They Said."

The various marks of the corporation was to be processed as the status and port of the particular to be processed.

The particular to the corporation was to be processed as the status and port of the particular to be processed.

The particular to the procession was the processed as the processed as

Was Glad When They Said."

The various parts of the coronation service were rehearsed, the Archbishop of Canterbury and his numerous assistants taking part.

"Act of Recognition" Rehearsed.

"The act of recognition" was the first to se rehearsed. Sir spencer Ponsonby-Pane. preneded by the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Lord Chancellor, was conducted to the four sides of the "theater," and at each the Archbishop said: ch the Archbishop said:
"Bira, I here present unto you King Edward, the undoubted King of this realm. Wherefore all you who are come this day to do your homage, are you willing to do the Whersupon everybody shouted out at the mstigation of the Duke of Norfolk, "God late King Edward!" After this the deputies of the King and Queen were conducted to their chairs on the south side of the altar, where they are to kneel at their footstools whilst the Litmy is surg. Another rehearsal is called for to-morrow shich is to be a very full one. There will also be one on Wednesday morning. King Gives Grand Dinner. King Edward and Queen Alexandra gave grand dinner party to-night at Bucking-am Palace to seventy royal personages, ham Palace to seventy royal personages, who practically represented the soveregns of all the monarchies of the world. The list of ther Majesties' guests was teaded by the Czarowitz of Russia, who irrived in London this evening, and including an imposing array of Princes and Princeses and all the members of the Brit-

Buckingham Palace was beautifully decor-

BABEL OF TONGUES HEARD IN LONDON

Almost Every Language Spoken May Be Heard in Crowds Which Throng Streets.

MME. BERNHARDT'S INVITATION.

King Specially Asked Her to Attend Coronation Ceremony-Prince of Wales Is Busiest Man in England.

London, June 21.-The Prince of Wales had a busy day in receiving the royal guests related to his family, who arrived n London. He paid three separate visits to the Victoria Station for this purpose, where a special reception-room, gay with paims and flowers, had been arranged. The last guest to be received by the Prince was the Czarewitch of Russia, who had arrived on one of the Russian imperial rachts, and attended at Gravesend

The enormous and daily growing crowds and the babble of foreign tongues in London may perhaps be considered, so far, the nest striking feature of the coronation festivities. Early morning sees crowds of cyclists, mostly women, wheeling along the routes of the processions, to view the dec

Barriers May Be Imperative.

Later in the day there begins an endless stream of vehicles of every conceivable condition from the aristocratic equipage' of the wealthy to humble coster or market carts containing entire families seated on hairs and stools

Brakes crowded with tourists of every nationality are driven over the routes there is fighting for the outside seats or mnibuses, while on the sidewalks are offended while on the sidewards are dense masses of slow-moving pedestrians. The Commissioner of Police has issued an explanatory notice saying that the barriers which have been creeted along the routes will not necessarily be closed during the processions, but, from present appearances, such a course will be absolutely imperative to prevent serious accidents. to prevent serious accidents. Bernhardt Specially Invited.

A coronation thankegiving service will be held next Sunday at St. Paul's Cathedral.

be held next Sunday at St. Paul's Cathedral.

The dean of St. Paul's, Robert Gregory, D. D., and the chapter of the cathedral will especially invite the colonial visitors and Americans who are now in London to be present at this service.

A large space under the dome will be reserved for these visitors and tickets of admission to the cathedral have been placed at the disposal of the Colonial Office and the United States Embassy.

Mme. Albani and Sarah Bernhardt, are among the numerous artists and musicians to whom their Majestles have sent special invitations to attend the cononation ceremony. Mme. Bernhardt was especially honored in receiving from King Edward tickets for two seats in the abbey.

The transport Bavarian, which is bringing British troops from South Africa to participate in the coronation festivities, has been sighted off the Lizard. She will reach Southampton to-morrow.

AMERICAN GIRLS IN . EVIDENCE. Get All Enjoyment Possible Out of Coronation Sights. PECIAL BY CABLE TO THE NEW YORK HERALD AND THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC. London, June 23 .- (Copyright, 1902)-The presence of numerous Americans was made evident by many open landaus and victorias, containing anywhere from four to ten bright-faced, daintily-dressed American ing up and down in their excite-REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, June 22.—William Wat
the stands, the crowds and individuals in-

Be in Alaska.

San Francisco, Cal., June 23.-Miss Juliet o his carriage, leaned rather heavily on his carriage, leaned rather heavily on his cane and moved as though he suffered his cane and moved as though he suffered his cane and moved as though he suffered his only serious rival among the younger men, and Kipling, though in the totallty of his work. Thane of hies Augusta Blaine and bridesmaids were Miss Edith Huddert and though in the totallty of his work. The both prose and verse, is undoubtelly the more remarkable phenomenon, the University of California in the mining department. The couple will go to Juneau, a poetical message.

One of the most interesting events of to-a poetical message.

 The poem opens with a personal ad-Doctor Blaine is the physician in charge at the St. Louis Keeley Institute, No. 280 Locust street. The residence of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Frances Stowe, is in Berkeley, Cal., across the bay from San Francisco, and at that place the wedding was cele-brated.

Doctor Blaine said last night that his professional duties prevented him from attending the marriage. The ceremony was performed in California because many of the friends and relatives of the bride are in that State. Mrs. Elia S. Blaine and Miss Augusta Blaine, mother and sister, respectively, of the bride, are now at Berkeley.

tary of Treasury Objectionable.

DEPURLIC SPECIAL Washington, June 23.—General C. L. Spaulding, First Assistant Secretary of the Spaulding, First Assistant Secretary of the Trensury, has been definitely notified by Secretary Shaw that he is to retire. He will probably not again exercise the functions of an Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, being at the present time on a leave of absence. General Spaulding, as the head of the customs division, opposed former Appraiser Wilbur F. Wakeman of New York, who contended that Hosenthal & Ca, importers of Inneres sike, had been evading customs contended that Rosenthal & Ca.importers of Japanese silks, had been evading customs duties to the amount of $99,000 a year by means of faise invoices.

In consequence of the decision of General Spaniding, the importers wan were engaged in the deception on the Government went even so far as to demand the removal of Appraiser Wakeman by Precident Rosevelt, and but for the fact that competitors of the offending firm forced an investigation and carried the case to the President entirely independent of the Treasury officials, the whole conspiracy would have remained unexposed and Mr. Wakeman would have appeared in the light of a vexatious meddler.

At New York Hotels.

At New York Hotels.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, June 23.—Among the arrivals at the hotels here to-day were the following Westerners:

St. Lonis—A. Samish, E. M. Hodgkins, W. Levis, hofman: L. Toben, A. W. Conner, F. W. Olin, Jr., F. W. Olin, W. E. Morgan, Mrs. A. D. Glannini, A. E. Faust and Mrs. Faust, A. S. Singer and Mrs. Singer, Mannattan, J. R. Ramsay, Jr., J. D. Abeles, V. Andrews, O. Webb, J. A. Abeles, O. L. Biebinger and Mrs. Robinger, S. Werner, Miss E. Collins, L. E. Collins, G. Willis, Mrs. S. C. Clubb, Miss, H. Moel, Holland; C. H. Malensbury, Mrs. C. M. Petring, Miss A. Petring, H. O. Krone, P. E. Wright, L. B. Freedman and Mrs. Freedman, H. T. Pentuss and Mrs. Fentuss, St. Denley, L. G. Warrington, B. M. Higgins, A. J. Graham, Miss, I. Graham, Broadway Central: J. H. Withingston, R. M. Portes, C. E. Hayden and Mrs. Hayden, Imperial: Doctor Clarke and Mrs. Clarke, P. C. Jones and Mrs. Jones, Delavani, L. D. Carter, J. C. Carter and Mrs. Caster, Murray Hill. Miss M. Dehony, A. J. Hellimich, Normandie; J. A. Dickbrader, Grand, L. T. Wood, Heraid Square; A. L. Paddock, Astor: Mrs. J. Thurston, Victoria; Theodere Guiscu, Empire, D. Tredwar, Gilber; J. Burke, Grand Union. Union
Kansas City—Mrs. C. A. Dursley, Mrs. J. P.
Jackson, H. A. Willson, Murray Hill; Miss M.
G. Downing, Kensington; O. D. Woodward, Criterion; J. N. Penrod, Imperial; O. H. Schramm, Cosmopolitan; Miss F. Dunion, Fifth Avenue.
St. Joseph—J. S. Morris, Astor: F. C. Davis, Herald Square; R. A. Brown, Imperial.

WHERE THE CORONATION GUESTS WILL STAY.

DRAWING ROOM AT CHESTERFIELD HOUSE.

LEMONADE OR BEER WILL BE

CORRECT CORONATION DRINK.

Vexed Question of Refreshments at

King's Dinner Has Been Settled.

PECIAL BY CAPLE TO THE NEW YORK HERALD AND THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC.

London, June 22.-(Copyright, 1902)-The vexed question of what to give the poor to drink at the King's coronation dinner has been solved. Tretotalers will not be but will have the choice of lemo. 'e, if they become thirsty.

The barricades on the streets leading to indignation in some quarters.

"War," says one newspaper, "would certainly seem to have been responsible for the astonishingly rapid deterioration in the CHILDREN BROKE GROUND.

Interesting Exercises at McKinley

High School Site.

Ground was broken for the McKinley High School at Missouri and Russell avenues at II yesterday morning, Jack D. and Jeanne H., the twin children of John Schroers, president of the Board of Education, raising the first spadefuls of dirt.

The spades they used were specially prepared for the occasion and were made of silver, with a picture of President McKinley at the top of the handle and on the spade part a picture of the proposed school.

children sank their spades into the ground and threw a spadeful into a wagen. He

"While St. Louis has only one High cities, like Cincinnati, Kansas City and Cleveland, have three or more. St. Louis is the only city in our country which has made the weakest showing in higher education of the masses in proportion to its

"May the success of the McKinley High School redound to the glory of our country;

its greatest institution, the public schools, to the glory of the city and to the welfare of those who will make from this school

The spade which was used to break the ground will be presented to the school by

In the City.

นี้รองออจจองออจจองจองจะจอจ

INCORPORATED-The Gately Credit

INCORPORATED—The Gately Credit Clothing Company, capitalized at $25,000, filled artifices of incorporation yesterday with the Recorder of Deeds. The stock consists of 250 shares, valued at $100 cach, paid in. John P. Gately holds 193 shares, F. J. Bentley 50 and John Keller 1. The Horn Brothers Hotel Company has a capital stock of $25,000, divided into 250 shares, valued at $100 cach, paid in. Adolph Horn holds 124 shares, Richard Horn 124 and Emil Guckenhvim 2. The E. F. Seidel Manufacturing Company has a capital stock of $15,000, divided into 1,500 shares, valued at $100 cach, paid in. Emil E. Seidel Masufacturing Company has a capital stock of $15,000, divided into 1,500 shares, valued at $100 cach, paid in. Emil E. Seidel holds 50 shares, H. S. Seidel 1,420 and Herman W. Sander 10.

FELL FIFTEEN FEET-Mes.

Caigary, 75 years old, of No. 1234 Linden street, is at the Caty Hospital, sunf ring from a fractured skull, broken shoulder blade, fractured ribe and internal injuries, sustained in a fall of fifteen feet from the stcend-story porch at her home yesterday morning. She was leading on the porch railing when it gave way and she fell to the payement.

"DRY DOLLAR" SULTAVAN HERE-State Senator Timothy Sullivan of Ne York, better known as "bry Dollar Sul van," passed through St. Louis yesterd:

tork, better known as my bonar sam-van." passed through St. Louis yesterday on his way from the metropolis to Hot Springs, Ark. He spent the day at the Southern Hotel. The purpose of his trip, he says, is to take a thorough rest. He is accompanied by a party of preminent race-herse men and politicans. Among these are: M. Padden, H. Hemstreet, H. Appie-baum. George Sullivan, P. Kelly and J.

NELLIE ORTON SUES FOR DIVORCE

Nellate Orton alleged in her suit for di-verce, filed in the Circuit Court yesterday, that she was murried about August, 1885, and came to St. Louis in June, 1901, with the consent of her husband, John W. Orton, to visit her mother, who was sick. She states that several requests to her husband for funds on which to return to her home have been unanswered by him.

FATHER J. S. LONG'S FESTIVAL-

Members of All Saints' congregation will hold a meeting next Sunday afternoon at the church. Maple and Irma avenues, to audit the return of the four nights' summer festival, given at Delmar race track, which closed last Sunday evening. The festival was a success and a handsome sum was realized, which will be used to make a payment on the church, which was recently built.

SEVEN SUMMONSES-The Board of License Revision yesterday issued summonses against representatives of seven mercantile and manufacturing concerns to appear this week and explain attested mercantile and manufacturing concerns to appear this week and explain attested statements of sales and stock. LAWN EUCHRE—St. Margaret's Cath-elle parish will give a lawn suchre next Tuesday evening at Vandeventer avenue and Flora boulevard.

FIVE DOLLARS FOR FRESH AIR— For the Presh Air Fund Mrs. N. Bry of No. 4213 Washington avenue sends 12 and R. C. F. 13.

their formal entrance Into the world.

said, in part:

manners of the jubilating Londoner."

EXPENSE OF CORONATION

Estimates Placed by the House of Commons Are Expected to Be Greatly Exceeded.

REACHES ALARMING SUM.

SPECIAL BY CABLE TO THE NEW YORK HERALD AND THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC. London, June 21.-(Copyright, 1902.)-This is by far the most expensive coronation England has ever had, and, in view of the fact that the cost of putting the crown on the head of George IV exceeded the sum obliged to drawn their principles with beer, which alone was intended to be provided, voted by the trifling matter of $890,000, the Government is being asked what assurance will be given that the estimates just placed upon the table of the House of Commons the route of the procession have caused will not be exceeded. The sum mentioned is larger by $150,000 than the cost of Victoria's crowning and by $275,600 that of William IV.

Contracts, under military supervision, are being let for feeding the troops in London during coronation week. On coronation day wagons with supplies of bread, cheese and beer, or their equivalent, will be close at hand until the troops are relieved from duty, so that perspiring "Tommy" may have refreshments as soon as possible.

HAS SEEN THREE CROWNINGS. Lord Gwydyr Expects to See His

Fourth This Week. EPECIAL BY CABLE TO THE NEW YORK HERALD AND THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC. London, June 21.—(Copyright, 1969—Lord Gwydyr of East Anglia has seen three Eng-Mr. Schroers spoke briefly and then his lish crownings and hopes to see his fourth this week. There are not a dozen persons living, perhaps, who saw the coronation of Queen Victoria, but the venerable Welsh peer was put on the head of George IV. Of the royal spectators there will be two in the Abbey who were there at the last coronationthe Duke of Cambridge and his sister, the Grand Duchess of Macklenburgh-Strelltz. The fact that the King and Queen will place offerings of gold in the oblation dish recalls an incident of the coronation of William and Mary. When the plate was passed to William, he found he had no oney with him and had to berrow twenty guineas from Lord Danby.

HALL-EDWARDS.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Salem, Ill., June 23.—Mr. Charles W. Hall, son of ex-Mayor Henry R. Hall, formerly of this city, and Miss Lizzie Edwards, daughter of the late Doctor S. G. Edwards, dof Sandoval, were married this afternoon at the risidence of Judge C. F. Patterson, an uncle of the bride, by the Reverend James F. Resbrough of the Christian Church of this city.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

TUNNELL-LISTER.

Carlinville, Ill., June 22.—Mr. Frederick Tunnell of Virden and Miss Minnie Lister of Miles Station were married at the resi-dence of the Reverend D. P. Deadrick in this city to-day.

BRADLEY MARTINS GIVE A DINNER TO MR. AND MRS. REID

THE DINING-ROOM AT CHEST ERFIELD HOUSE, WHICH LORD

BURTON HAS LENT TO THE KING.

Brilliant Company of Titled Persons Are Entertained at Their London House.

London, June 23.-Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Martin entertained Whitelaw Reid, the special Ambassador of the United States to the coronation of King Edward, and Mrs. Reid and a brilliant company of about fifty persons at dinner to-night The Bradley Martins' guests included the Duke and Duchess of Newcastle, the Prince and Princess of Pless, the Earl and Counters of Chesterfield, Earl and Countess Spencer, Earl Cadogan, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and Countess Gadogan, and the Earl and Countess of Craven (who was Miss Cornelia Bradley Martin).

WAS ROBBED WHILE ASLEEP. Joseph Lawless Relieved of Clothing-Suspect Arrested. Joseph D. Lawless of No. 2001 Spring avenue was robbed of his coat, vest shoes and a silver watch early yesterday morning while alseep. The robbery occurred near the corner of Eighteenth and Biddle streets while Lawless was waiting for a car. Lawless sat on the curbing, and, being fatigued, fell asieep. So soundly did he slumber that he was not awakened while the thief relieved him of his coat, vest and shoes, As the robber was preparing to take his departure Patrolman Birmingham of the Carr Street Station and Special Watchman O'Hara came around the corner and were attracted by the strange actions of the man. After a chase of a Victoria, but the venerable Weish peer was block they overtook a man who gave the present as a boy of ten when the crown was name of Lawrence White, who said he lived at No. 2253 O'Fallon street. In his possess sion were found the coat, vest and shoes, which Lawless identified as his property. The watch was not recovered. A warrant charging larceny will be applied for this

LANDLORD SHOOTS HIS TENANT

Death May Follow Quarrel Over Payment of Rent.

Kansas City, Mo., June 23 .- Doctor Louis Zorn, a retired dentist, who owns much property in this city, to-night shot and mortally wounded Albert Sechrest, a tenant, as the result of a dispute over the payment of rent.

The two men have had several quarrels and to-night Doctor Zorn went to the Sechrest residence, at No. 2508 East Ninth street, and made demands, which were refused, and the shooting followed.

Sechrest is 30 years old and Zorn is 50.

SCHEEF-HENDREN.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Mattoon, Ill., June 22.—Mr. John Scheef and Miss Margaret Henderson were married by Doctor Charles Boaz last night.

THIRTEENTH CARRIAGE REVIVES SUPERSTITION.

Will Contain Three Representatives of Dynastics Which Have Felt the Blow of the Assassin.

SPECIAL BY CABLE TO THE NEW YORK HERALD AND THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC.

London, June 21.—(Copyright, 1902.)—Su-perstitious folks are pointing out one peculiar feature in Friday's programme. In the thirteenth carriage will be seated three representatives of dynasties which have felt the blow of the assassin, the Duke d'Aosta of Italy, the Archduke Francls Ferdinand of Austria and the heriditary Grand Duke Michael of Russia,

Their carriage will be drawn by six black Eighteen ambulance stations and six fressing stations will be distributed over the route of the second day's procession.

PICNIC FOLLOWED A FUNERAL.

When Mourners Began to Celebrate a Riot Ensued.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Springfield, Ill., June 23.-A riot occurred at a picnic, following a funeral, in Auburn this afternoon. As a result, one man will die, and three others are more or less se riously injured.

Fatally hurt: STEPHAN MAZE.

Injured: JOSEPH BOHNER, cut on head; condition serious. GEORGE VARGE, cut over left eye.

JOHN JURBARSKI, cut on hand. The affray resulted from an altercation between Varge and Maze.

All the parties are Slavs.

number was killed in a mine urday, and, after the funeral, the mourners adjourned to the City Park to celebrate Varge attacked Maze with an ax, and when others interfered drew a long-bladed knife and slashed everyone within reach.

After the outbreak Varge barricad self in his home and threatened to kill anvne attempting to arrest him. The village marshal apprehended him and he will be brought here for incarceration. MARTIN-BURTON.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Murphysboro. III., June 23.—Mr. Philip Martin of Carbondale and Miss Lillian Burton of this city were married in this city tonight. LYNCH-MERCER. REPUBLIC SPECIAL Duquoin, Ill., June 23.—Mr. Millard Lynch and Miss Elsie Mercer were married yesterday afternoon by the Reverend G. E. McCammon. They left this evening for Herrin, Ill., to make their future home.

BURKE—YARBOROUGH. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Carlyle, Ill., June 22.—Mr. C. E. Burks and Miss Hannah M. Yarborough of Stew-ardson, Ill., were united in marriage in Keyesport, Magistrate J. S. McDonald offi-ciating.

GOLDEN JUBILEE OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL'S SCHOOL

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL, NINTH STREET AND PARK AVENUE.

will celebrate its golden jubilee to-morrow Lemp's Park, Thirteenth and Utah streets. Preceding the jubilee exercises, which will be held at 4 o'clock, baseball and field exercises, in which parishioners will be the contestants, will take place. will be served at 6 p. m., and at 8 a grand euchre will wind up the festivities.

The school is one of the oldest parochial schools in St. Louis, and since its dedication, in 1852, over 7,000 pupils have received instructions in it. Among the graduates are numbered lawyers, bankers, clergymen,

St. Vincent de Paul's Parochial School | teachers of note and men prominent in | Workhouse quarry, in which the boys of business circles.

When the school was built, in 1852, the Christian Brothers assumed charge, and it has remained under their care ever since. At that time there was no parochial resi-

The first director of the school was Brother Nicholas, a noted teacher, who afterwards took charge of St. Patrick's School. The first resident director was brother Gaand from the old Christian Brothers' College, at Eighth and Cerre streets, to the school. The neighborhood was then principally a forest primeval, a cowpath leading from the school building to Choutean avenue. Directly north of the school was a truck farm and to the west was the old that generation bathed themselves.